COMISKEY PARK

COMISKEY PARK

For one memory-filled year, the players who use it should consider stepping aside so the fans who revere it can savor the meaning of its 75th anniversary season.

The venerable stadium has become far more than the nation's oldest active ball park. It's a tie to yesterday, a shrine to a bygone era, and an American sports landmark.

It has withstood the rigors and changes of time without losing its place in the world.

Charles Comiskey's vision successfully has blended yesterday and today. On July 1, 1985, it undertakes tomorrow as it enters its fourth quarter century of service to an adoring sporting public.

The Park Today

Comiskey Park is truly a charming blend of the best of the new and the old. The oldest major league baseball facility operating today (it opened its doors July 1, 1910), it represents both ends of the age spectrum. A full-color Diamond Vision/ Matrix scoreboard, 33 "Super Suites," new auxiliary scoreboards, expanded washrooms and concession facilities in both the upper and lower decks, modern dugouts, an expanded clubhouse, and other improvements give it all the touches found in today's modern sports facilities.

But Comiskey Park, one of the few major league parks designed exclusively for baseball, retains the charm that allows veteran baseball fans to recall visions of their favorite baseball heroes from another age.

Diamond Vision is certainly the most dramatic change in Comiskey Park in recent years. The scoreboard contains a unique combination of a full-color video display board alongside a full matrix message board. Mitsubishi/America and White Way Sign, manufacturers of the board, describe it as the most sophisticated system installed to date in the United States.

The Early Days

Comiskey Park today is certainly a long way from the vision Charles Comiskey had in his mind when he moved the St. Paul franchise of the Westem League to Chicago in 1900 to form the Chicago franchise in the newly organized American League.

Comiskey wanted a ball park on 39th Street and Wentworth Avenue (Wentworth contained a major north-south streetcar line from Chicago's "Loop" to the far Southside). He leased land near that site which was owned by the Chicago Cricket Club. The White Stockings (as they were known originally) played there for 10 years, while Comiskey purchased vacant land at 35th and Shields from the estate of Chicago's first mayor, John Wentworth, and appointed a committee to study plans for a new park. One member of the committee was Ed Walsh, the White Stockings' premier pitcher of the day, and Walsh's influence is said to be responsible for the park's generous outfield dimensions. The original dimensions were 362 feet down the foul lines and 420 feet to straight-away center field — a pitcher's paradise.

The park, originally named "White Sox Park," was constructed in great haste in early 1910, and opened its doors officially July 1, 1910 with a seating capacity of 35,000. Comiskey, aware of his working class following, was careful to include a generous mix of "cheap" seats at 25 cents. The Sox opened their new park July 1 by losing 2-0 to the St. Louis Browns. Ed Walsh was the losing pitcher. The game was played before a crowd that was estimated at 24,000 paid, 28,000 total, an exceptionally large crowd by that day's standards. The first home run hit in the new park was by the Sox' Lee Tannehill, July 31, 1910, a grand slam against Detroit.

Comiskey Park as it looked in 1933 for the first major league All-Star Game.

During its first decade of existence, Comiskey Park (as it had become known by 1913) was host to three consecutive World Series in 1917, '18 and '19. The Sox were in the 1917 and '19 Series, and the Cubs leased Mr. Comiskey's new edifice when they took part in the 1918 World Series.

The first major changes took place in the mid-1920s when the popularity of the New York Yankees, led by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, always drew overflow crowds. After the 1926 season, the original wooden bleachers were torn down and replaced with a permanent steel and concrete structure, the outfield pavilions were double-decked, and the present bleacher structure was built. Original plans called for a seating capacity of 55,000 but fire codes held it to 52,000.

Tape Measures

Doubledecking the outfield pavilions created interest in how far a ball would have to travel to clear the roof, and a surveyor's team ascertained a drive would require a ground-to-ground distance of at least 474 feet to clear either the left or right field roof. It didn't take long for Gehrig and Ruth to make history in the newly renovated park.

Gehrig hit the first homer into the new pavilion in the expanded park in the very first Yankee series (May 7, 1927, a grand slam off Ted Lyons), and Ruth hit the first homer over the pavilion roof later that same season (August 16 off Tommy Thomas). Gehrig hit the second homer over the roof two years later off Red Faber, May 4, 1929. The first home run into the new bleachers did not come for 11 years; Hank Greenberg hit it May 27, 1938.

Extracurricular

In 1933, all eyes were focused on Comiskey Park when it was the site of the first All-Star Game. Staged as part of the Century of Progress Exposition that ran on Chicago's lake front that summer, the All-Star Game was an instant success as an official crowd of 47,595 crowded into Mr. Comiskey's house (police estimates put the crowd in excess of 49,000). On July 6, 1983 — 50 years to the date — Comiskey Park was the site of the "Golden Anniversary All-Star Game." The American League won baseball's first All-Star Game, 4-2, on a two-run homer by Babe Ruth. And on July 6, 50 years later, under the lights of America's oldest major league stadium, Fred Lynn of the California Angels hit a grand slam home run, the first in All-Star history, to spark the American League to a 13-3 rout of the National League. The All-Star Game returned to Comiskey Park one other time in its 50-year history on July 11, 1950. That game went 14 innings, but the National League finally broke the stalemate and won 4-3.

Comiskey Park and its fans witnessed a happening in 1983. The White Sox gained momentum throughout August and September, winning 46 of their remaining 61 games to finish atop the A.L. West by a whopping margin of 20 games, an American League record for margin of victory, and finished with a season record of 99-63, the best record in baseball! The ChiSox had given Chicago its first baseball championship in 24 years.

Workmen transform the Comiskey Park infield from grass into artificial turf prior to the 1968 season.

Changes Of Time

In 1934, the infield was moved 14 feet closer to the outfield walls to provide Al Simmons an easier home run target.

Later, inside fences in left and right field were installed in 1949 and again in 1969 and '70. An inside fence in center field, reducing the distance to home plate from a cavernous 440 feet to a more conventional 400 feet was erected in 1949, removed in 1976, and reinstalled for the 1981 season.

To their credit, Bill Melton (1971) and Dick Allen (1972) won their American League home run crowns with the park's basic 1927 dimensions.

The late Sherm Lollar holds the record for career home runs in Comiskey Park with 66 in his 18-year career. Over the winter of 1967-68, an artificial infield was installed. The carpet also included foul territory around the bases. The outfield remained natural sod. The experiment ended following the 1975 season when the entire field was returned to natural grass.

During the winter of 1982-83, the infield was moved eight feet closer to the outfield and all dimensions remeasured, prompting the discovery of inaccurate distance listings.

In spite of its changes, Comiskey Park stands in its 1927 state. Millions of dollars have been spent over the years to maintain and improve it, but it remains exclusively a park built for baseball.

It continues to be as much fun to visit as it is to watch the national pastime.

Ground Rules

- Foul poles and attached screens are part of playing field.
- Ball hitting yellow facing surrounding both players' benches is considered in the dugout.
- Ball striking railing in front of either dugout is in play; ball striking stairway railing and top step of either dugout is considered out of play.
- Ball hitting to the right of the yellow line in left center field or to the left of the yellow line in right center field above the fence is a home run. Ball hitting on the fly to either side of these yellow lines and carrying over the fence is a home run.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Comiskey Park has been the site of four World Series — 1917 (White Sox defeated the New York Giants four games to two), 1918 (Cubs lost to the Boston Red Sox four games to two), 1919 (Cincinnati Redlegs downed the White Sox five game to three), and 1959 (Los Angeles Dodgers prevailed over the White Sox four game to two).

Comiskey Park was the unexpected site of the 1918 World Series between the Boston Red Sox and the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs transferred their Series home games to Comiskey Park for its greater seating capacity. Boston won the Series four games to two. George Herman "Babe" Ruth was Boston's pitcher in game one, tossing a six-hit, 1-0 shutout at the Cubs.

Manager Tony La Russa

TONY LA RUSSA

Manager/#10

Given name: Edwin Albert Brinkman. Nickname: "Brink." Age: 43. Born: December 8, 1941, Cincinnati, O. Batted/threw: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-0/175. Residence: Cincinnati, O. Family: Married Donna Raber November 6, 1965; daughters Kimberly (August 31, 1967) and Shari (January 10, 1970). First professional contract: Washington Senators, 1961. Major league debut: Washington Senators, 1961. Sox affiliation: Hired as coach November 1, 1982.

Credited with much of the drastic improvement shown by the White Sox infield defense the past two seasons. . .infield defense had been a soft spot prior to Brinkman's arrival. . .in '84, the White Sox tied with Baltimore in team fielding with a .981 percentage. . .the Orioles were considered the leader, however, by virtue of 70 more total chances. . .the White Sox actually made one less error than the O's with 122. . .only Minnesota at 120 made fewer miscues. . .in '83, the Pale Hose finished third in A.L. defense (.981) and second during the season's second half (.984), one percentage point shy of being the league's leading defense during the second half. . .those figures represented a drastic improvement over '82 when the Sox finished 13th in fielding in the 14-team American League. . .another notch on Brinkman's belt is budding first baseman Greg Walker, who suddenly is considered a good defensive player to complement his potent bat . . . infield defense was on manager Tony La Russa's mind during the 1982-83 off-season . . . Brinkman was La Russa's choice to tutor the ChiSox infielders about defense . . . defense was Brinkman's specialty during his 15-year major league career with Washington, Detroit, St. Louis, Texas, and the New York Yankees . . . earned his deserved reputation as one of the game's top defensive shortstops . . . during his 1972 season with the Tigers, Brinkman established the following major league fielding records: Fewest errors, 7; most consecutive errorless games, 72; highest fielding percentage in 150 or more games, .990; and, most consecutive errorless chances, 331 . . . garnered a Gold Glove in '72 for his efforts . . . Brinkman hit a composite .224 during his career with 60 home runs and 461 runs batted in . . . his best season with the bat was 1969 when he hit .266 with Washington.

HAROLD BAINES

Outfielder/#3

Given name: Harold Douglas Baines. Age: 25, turns 26 March 15. Born: March 15, 1959, Easton, Md. Bats/throws: Left/left. Height/weight: 6-2/195. Major league tenure: Five years. Residence: St. Michaels, Md. Contract status: On third year of four-year contract. Signed through 1986 with two option years. Family: Married Marla Henry, October 29, 1983; daughter Antoinette (March 6, 1984). First pro contract: White Sox. Major league debut: April 10, 1980 with the White Sox (vs. Baltimore). Sox acquisition: Selected first round (first in nation), June, 1977, free agent draft.

1984: Turned in his finest season by hitting .304, the White Sox' only .300 hitter...his first .300 season...slammed a career high 29 home runs (second most by a left-handed hitter in White Sox history) to move into a tie for fourth place on the White Sox all-time home run list with Pete Ward (1963-69) at 97...Baines and Ward also are tied for the White Sox lead in career homers by a left-handed hitter...besides batting average, Baines led the ChiSox in nearly every offensive category — hits (171), RBI (94), game-winning RBI (17), runs (72), doubles (28), triples (10), multiple-hit games (48), extra base hits (67), total bases (308), and slugging percentage (.541)...led the American League in slugging percentage and tied for second in game-winning RBI...total-base figure was third best in White Sox history behind Joe Jackson (336 in 1920) and Carl Reynolds (329 in 1930)...became only the 12th batter in Pale Hose history to reach double figures in all extra base hit categories in one season and the first to accomplish the feat since Jorge Orta in 1975...ended the longest game (eight hours, six minutes) in history on May 9 when he hit the 753rd pitch of the contest (from Chuck Porter) into the center field bullpen to give the White Sox a 25-inning victory over Milwaukee...the bat he used to hit the historic home run was sent to the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y....homered three times at Minnesota September 17.

■ MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Although just 25 years of age, his next home run will make him the most prolific left-handed home run hitter in White Sox history...only player in Sox history to homer three times in one game twice...has averaged 99 RBI per year over the past three seasons. ■ 1983: Set a major league record with 22 game-winning RBI...his most significant GWRBI came September 17 at Comiskey Park when his ninth-inning sacrifice fly drove home Julio Cruz with the run that beat Seattle and clinched the White Sox' A.L. West Division championship, the franchise's first title since 1959...led the A.L. in homers hit in winning games (18)...hit the White Sox' only grand slam home run of the season...notched his 500th major league hit on August 29...owned a 19-game hitting streak, longest on the club (September 3-23)...led the Pale Hose in outfield assists (10) for the second straight season...finished second on the club in outfield defense (.973) only to A.L. leader and teammate Rudy Law...batted .125 in the American League playoffs against Baltimore (2-for-16). ■ 1982: Drove in a career high 105 runs...at 23, became the youngest player in White Sox history to crack the 100-RBI barrier...RBI total represented the most by a Sox batter since Dick Allen accumulated 113 in 1972...enjoyed an incredible week in early July by hitting .500 (11-for-22), slamming five home runs, including a pair of grand slams, and driving in 13 runs in just six games...the high point of his tear came July 7 when he blasted three home runs in one game, including an eighth-inning grand slam, to drive in six runs against Detroit...named A.L. player-of-the-week for his rampage. ■ 1981: Ignored the sophomore jinx...added 31 points to his rookie batting average...tied for second in the A.L. in triples with seven...hit .354 in August...drove in 15 runs in 17 September games...25 multiple-hit games. ■ 1980: Twenty years old during his impressive rookie season...regular from the beginning...appeared in 141 games, hitting 13 homers and driving in 49 runs while tying for the club lead in triples with six...slammed a three-run home run and two doubles in four at bats at Cooperstown, New York's annual Hall of Fame Game.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent just three seasons in the minor leagues...in his only "AAA" season, 1979, Baines hit .298 with 22 homers and 87 RBI, and led Iowa, the White Sox' "AAA" affiliate at the time, in triples (8), total bases (246), and slugging percentage (.528)...etched his name in the record book in '79 by belting two home runs in the same inning on August 4 at Oklahoma City.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Quiet, soft-spoken personality ...first pick of the June, 1977 free agent draft..."discovered" as a 12-year-old little leaguer by former White Sox owner Bill Veeck when both lived on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

Pitcher/#24

Given name: Floyd Franklin Bannister. Nickname: "Banny." Age: 29, turns 30 June 10. Born: June 10, 1955 at Pierre, S.D. Bats/throws: Left/left. Height/weight: 6-1/203. Major league tenure: Eight years. Residence: Scottsdale, Ariz. Contract status: In third year of five-year contract. Signed through 1987 with three option years. Family: Married Jana Cochran November 11, 1978; sons Brian (February 28, 1981) and Brett (March 3, 1983). First pro contract: Houston Astros; selected first round (first in nation), June, 1976, free agent draft. Major league debut: April 19, 1977, with Houston (vs. San Francisco). Sox acquisition: Signed as a free agent December 13, 1982.

1984: One of only two ChiSox starters to finish over .500...tied for second on the club with 14 wins (against 11 losses)...led the Sox staff in strikeouts (152) for the second consecutive year...strikeout ratio of 6.3 per nine innings...8-2 in July and August with a pair of four-hitters...tossed no-hit ball for 6.1 innings against Texas August 13 in a 5-3 win that snapped the ChiSox' four-game losing streak...struck out 11 at Milwaukee in a 5-1 Sox win on August 3, the best strikeout effort by a White Sox pitcher in '84...beat the Yankees four times against no losses...was 9-4 against East Division teams...only relief appearance came in the 25-inning marathon against Milwaukee on May 8-9, the longest game (eight hours, six minutes) in major league history.

■ MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Has been over .500 in each of his two seasons in a White Sox uniform . . . ranks fourth among active A.L. pitchers with 6.89 strikeouts per nine innings . . . cumulative ChiSox record is 30-21 . . . has beaten the Yankees seven straight times. ■ 1983: Made his first post-season appearance as the White Sox starter in game two of the ALCS against Baltimore, falling victim to Mike Boddicker's five-hit 4-0 shutout of the Sox . . . suffered through an inauspicious 3-9 (4.76 ERA) start to his White Sox career during the first half of the regular season . . . won his first nine decisions in the second half en route to a 13-1 record after the All-Star Game break . . . during the second half, he posted a 2.23 ERA and struck out 124 batters against only 27 walks . . . struck out 193 batters for the season, second best total in the American League and best by a lefty . . . strikeout ratio of eight per nine innings was tops in the A.L. and third in the major leagues . . . probably tossed his best career performance September 16 to clinch a tie for the A.L. West for Chicago, limiting Seattle to two hits and striking out 12, his career single-game high . . . joined fellow starters LaMarr Hoyt and Richard Dotson in compiling a 42-5 composite record after the All-Star Game . . . 16 wins remains his personal high . . . fanned nine batters in three consecutive starts August 21, 26, and 31. ■ 1982: Final season with Seattle was outstanding . . . Bannister led the A.L. in strikeouts with 209 . . . 3.43 ERA was tops among A.L. southpaws. ■ 1981: Fired a pair of two-hitters during the strike-shortened season to post his first .500 season (9-9) in the major leagues. ■ 1980: Achieved two firsts — pitched more than 200 innings (218) and dropped his ERA under 4.00 (3.47). ■ 1979: First season as a Mariner and in the American League. ■ 1978: A disappointing 3-9 in his last National League season as a Houston Astro . . . hampered by a spring training illness and several bouts with blisters. ■ 1977: Posted an 8-9 log in his rookie major league season . . . won his last four verdicts.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent only one season (1976) in the minor leagues . . . split that campaign between Covington, Columbus (Ga.), and Memphis . . . posted a 2-0 record and 1.50 ERA while striking out 53 hitters in 43 innings.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Signed by the White Sox as a free agent in December of 1982 . . . the signing was considered a coup . . . traded from Houston to Seattle for shortstop Craig Reynolds on December 8, 1978 . . . selected by 16 teams in the re-entry draft . . . first player selected in the June, 1976 free agent draft after a standout career at Arizona State University . . . amassed a gaudy 38-6 record as a Sun Devil with a 1.88 ERA to match in three seasons at the Tempe, Ariz. school . . . 19-2 as a senior with a 1.45 ERA and 123 strikeouts in 186 innings . . . named college player-of-the-year by The Sporting News . . . two-time all-America choice.

DARYL BOSTON

Outfielder/#33

Given name: Daryl Lamont Boston. Age: 22. Born: January 4, 1963, Cincinnati, O. Bats/throws: Left/left. Height/weight: 6-3/193. Major league tenure: Zero years, 47 days. Residence: Cincinnati, O. Contract status: Signed through 1985. Family: Single. First pro contract: White Sox. Major league debut: May 13, 1984 with the White Sox (vs. Texas). Sox acquisition: Selected in first round (seventh player in nation), June, 1981 free agent draft.

1984: Recalled by the parent White Sox three times, meaning his season was spent shuttling as follows — Denver ("AAA")-Chicago-Denver-Chicago-Denver-Chicago. . .made his major league debut May 13 an auspicious one by tripling off Texas' Charlie Hough in his first big league at bat. . .followed with two consecutive singles before striking out in his fourth at bat, leaving him one hit short of the major league and White Sox record for consecutive hits at the start of a major league career. . . added a stolen base for good measure in his debut. . .appeared in 35 games with the White Sox. . .enjoyed a banner year at Denver in 127 games, hitting .312, second best on the team while leading the squad with 40 stolen bases. . .his season average ranked fourth in the American Association. . .also led the A.A. in triples with 19, the most recorded in the loop in 19 years. . .at season's end, Boston was named to the American Association all-star team and the league's rookie-of-the-year.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: See above.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Boston has moved rapidly through the White Sox farm system, reaching the major leagues in 1984 after starting at the club's Gulf Coast League rookie team at Sarasota in 1981. . .advanced to "A" Appleton his second year, and played both

"AA" (Glens Falls) and "AAA" (Denver) ball his third year. . . has stolen 101 bases in less than four full minor league seasons. . . in '83, despite being promoted from "AA" to "AAA" the final few weeks of the season, he still finished second on the Glens Falls White Sox with 18 home runs and fourth in RBI with 50. . . at the end of the '83 season, he was dubbed one of the top 10 major league prospects in the Eastern League by Baseball America. . . Boston was accorded the same honor in '84 by Baseball America as an American Association "AAA" player. . . named to the Midwest League all-star team in 1982, his second professional season after leading the circuit's outfielders in games (139) and putouts (293).

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Considered the White Sox' center fielder of the future, perhaps in '85. . . blessed with outstanding speed, defensive skills, and throwing arm. . . selected by the White Sox as their first round pick (seventh choice overall) in the June, 1981 free agent draft. . . the choice made Boston the highest drafted player from the Cincinnati area since White Sox pitcher Richard Dotson was selected seventh in the nation by California in 1977. . . graduated from Woodward High School in Cincinnati after a stellar prep career as a pitcher and quarterback. . . heavily recruited as a football player. . . father Henry was manager of the Cincinnati Tigers semi-professional baseball team at one time. . . that team's star player was outfielder Dave Parker.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

On September 17, 1938, rookie White Sox first baseman Mervin Connors hit three successive home runs in one game at Comiskey Park, all off Philadelphia Jim Reninger. Connors also doubled to equal the record of four extra base hits in one game.

BRITT BURNS

Pitcher/#40

Given name: Robert Britt Burns. Nickname: "Hoss," "Burnsy." Age: 25, turns 26 June 8. Born: June 8, 1959, Houston, Tex. Bats/throws: Right/left. Height/weight: 6-5/217. Major league tenure: Five years, 42 days. Residence: Naperville, Ill. Contract status: Signed through 1985 with one option year. Family: Married Julie Umphrey October 30, 1982. First pro contract: White Sox. Major league debut: August 5, 1978 with the White Sox (vs. Detroit). Sox acquisition: Selected third round, June, 1978 free agent draft.

1984: Volunteered to start the season in the bullpen due to the quantity of White Sox starting pitching . . . six weeks into the season, he was placed back into the starting rotation . . . made his first start May 13 and recorded an 8-1 win against Texas . . . after posting eight losses and no victories in his next 11 starts, he returned to the bullpen July 5 . . . made three relief appearances before being felled by a bacterial infection and spending six days (July 17-22) in a Detroit hospital . . . placed on the 15-day disabled list July 19 . . . after brief rehabilitative work at two ChiSox farm clubs ("A" Appleton and "AAA" Denver), Burns' next appearance with the White Sox came on August 20th . . . returned to the starting rotation September 7 and snapped his 10-game losing streak on September 12 with a 4-2 triumph at Oakland . . . Burns' losing skein was the longest in the American League in 1984 . . . tossed his best game September 23 at Comiskey Park when he beat Seattle 4-0, allowing only three hits over 8.2 innings . . . recorded three seven-strikeout games.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Reported to Sarasota in early January of 1985 after spending the '84 off-season working out at Comiskey Park . . . already a five-plus-year veteran at 25 years of age (he turns 26 in June) with playoff experience and membership on one American League all-star team. 1983: After an undistinguished 10-11 regular season, Burns spun one of the most memorable performances in White Sox history against Baltimore in game four of the ALCS . . . nursed a scoreless deadlock into the 10th inning before yielding a one-out home run to reserve outfielder Tito Landrum on his 150th pitch of the game eventually lost by the Sox 3-0 . . . successfully dispelled doubts about lingering '82 shoulder woes during spring training until sidelined by a viral infection in his pitching shoulder just prior to the start of the season . . . opened the season on the disabled list . . . did not throw his first pitch in a game until May 9 . . . dogged by inconsistency most of the season . . . returned to form late in the year . . . pitched several big games for the Sox during their pennant drive . . . opened an important road trip at New York in mid-August and spun a three-hit, complete-game victory against the Yankees exactly one year after suffering his '82 shoulder injury against the same club . . . followed with a one-hit shutout of California on September 9 at Comiskey Park and a two-hit blanking of the Angels at Anaheim, Calif. on September 24 . . . despite his problems that limited him to only 26 starts, Burns still pitched four shutouts, the second best total in the American League . . . his one-hitter against California on September 9 ranks among his top career performances. 1982: Missed the final weeks of the season after suffering his shoulder injury . . . still led the White Sox in wins (13) and won-loss percentage (.722 with a 13-5 record) . . . second on the team in strikeouts (116), third in starts (28), and fifth in innings pitched (169.1). 1981: Hurled 30 consecutive scoreless innings in August and won six straight games in mid-season . . . named to the American League all-star team although he did not appear in the game . . . led the Sox staff in wins (10), innings (156.2), and strikeouts (108) and tied for the lead in complete games (5)...strikeout total was second in the American League while his whiff ratio of 6.2 per nine innings was third in the league...Burns' success was tempered on July 16 when his father, Charley, was struck by an automobile near Birmingham, Ala. and passed away September 12 without regaining consciousness...over his father's two-month fight for life, Burns commuted between his father's bedside and his starting assignments. ■ 1980: Burns' rookie season...The Sporting News A.L. rookie pitcher-of-the-year...fashioned an impressive 15-13 record with a 2.84 ERA in 32 starts...struck out 133 batters, his career best. ■ 1979: Jumped from "AA" Knoxville to "AAA" Iowa to parent White Sox, appearing in six decisionless games, all in relief...impressed with 34 strikeouts in 41 major league innings. ■ 1978: Made his major league debut in 1978, the same summer he signed his professional contract out of Birmingham's Huffman High School...both appearances were starts and losses against Detroit.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Never spent a full season in the minor leagues...pitched most of 1978-79 in the Sox farm system but spent stints with the parent White Sox both years...also pitched briefly at "A" Appleton and "AAA" Denver in 1984 to rehabilitate after illness...prior to arriving in the big leagues to stay for the 1980 season, Burns' minor league career consisted of 37 games in '78 and '79...only seven came at the "AAA" level.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Wife Julie, a model, and Burns reside the year around in suburban Naperville..."discovered" by former Chicago Tribune book critic Robert Cromie, who read an article about Burns' high school heroics while in Birmingham on business...Cromie clipped the article and mailed it to White Sox president Bill Veeck, a friend of Cromie...Burns' sensational prep career included a 0.12 ERA, a 35-2 record, 30 hits, 30 walks, and 292 strikeouts in 139 innings...included was an 18-game winning streak.

RICHARD DOTSON

Pitcher/#34

Given name: Richard Elliott Dotson. Nickname: "Dot." Age: 26. Born: January 10, 1959 at Cincinnati, O. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-0/203. Major league tenure: Five years, 31 days. Residence: Novato, Calif. Contract status: In second year of four-year contract with two option years. Family: Single. First pro contract: California Angels; selected in first round (seventh player in nation), June, 1977 free agent draft. Major league debut: September 4, 1979 with the White Sox (vs. California). Sox acquisition: With outfielders Bobby Bonds and Thad Bosley from California Angels in exchange for catcher Brian Downing and pitchers Chris Knapp and Dave Frost December 5, 1977.

1984: The White Sox' lone representative on the American League all-star team . . . led Sox starters with a 3.59 ERA, 245.2 innings pitched, and 14 complete games . . . tied for second on the staff with 14 victories . . . 14 complete games ranked third in the A.L. and just three shy of leader Charlie Hough of Texas . . . registered two three-hitters and three four-hitters . . . established personal single-game strikeout high with 10 against Texas on May 26 en route to a four-hit, 5-1 victory . . . best effort came on June 13 in 2-1 win at California when he three-hit the Angels and was deprived of a shutout on an unearned run with two outs in the ninth inning . . . also recorded his 500th career strikeout in the game (Rob Wilfong) . . . 11-4 and a 2.64 ERA prior to the All-Star Game break . . . lost four consecutive games after the break . . . between the '83 and '84 All-Star Games, Dotson was 25-6 with a 2.45 ERA in 272.1 innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Already "seasoned" at 26 years of age, Dotson has 70 major league victories, playoff experience, and five complete big league seasons under his belt. 1983: Joined Cy Young Award-winning teammate LaMarr Hoyt in posting a 20-win season and leading the White Sox to their A.L. West Division championship . . . his 22-7 record led the American League in winning percentage (.759) . . . second in the league to Hoyt in wins with 22 . . . Dotson and Hoyt became only the third ChiSox pitching duo in 63 years to win 20 or more games the same season and the first to turn the trick since Jim Kaat (21-13) and Wilbur Wood (20-19) in 1974 . . . also were the first White Sox twosome to win at least 46 games in one year since 1919 when Ed Cicotte (29-7) and "Lefty" Williams (23-11) won 52 . . . at age 24, Dotson was the youngest Sox pitcher to record a 20-win season since Reb Russell won 21 in 1913 (Russell was just four months younger than Dotson when he accomplished the feat) . . . "Dot" won his last eight decisions and 16 of his last 18...from July 15, he lost only twice — once in the regular season and once in the ALCS (both to Baltimore)...May 18, Dotson pitched the first one-hitter of his career only to lose 1-0 on an eighth-inning home run by Dan Ford just inside the right field foul pole...the ChiSox were 27-8 in games Dotson started...joined Hoyt and Floyd Bannister to form the "Big Three" and fashion a 42-5 won-loss record during the second half with a collective ERA of 2.55 in 385 innings...12-3 at Comiskey Park...the A.L. pitcher-of-the-month for September when he was 7-0 with a 1.93 ERA in 51.1 innings. ■ 1982: After a dismal 3-10 first half, Dotson won eight in a row in the second half to climb to 11-11 on September 8 with a win over California...named A.L. pitcher-of-the-month for August after going 6-0 with a 1.68 ERA in 48.1 innings. ■ 1981: The ChiSox' most effective starter in his sophomore big league season...enjoyed a string of 21 consecutive scoreless innings in May (3-15) with a pair of four-hit shutouts...finished tied for the A.L. lead with four shutouts, all during the season's first half...led Sox staff with 24 starts and tied for the lead in complete games (five). ■ 1980: The only right-hander in the Sox' "kiddie corps" of young starters, Dotson was second to Britt Burns for staff wins (12), strikeouts (109), and complete games (six)...tied for second with 32 starts...his first complete season in the big leagues. ■ 1979: Recorded his first major league shutout in his second major league start September 9, blanking Oakland 7-0 on six hits.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Rapid advancement...spent only two full seasons in the minors...never pitched higher than "AA" Knoxville...boasted 368 strikeouts in 326 minor league innings.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: The California Angels' first draft pick (seventh player selected overall) in the June, 1977 free agent draft...signed a letter of intent to attend Miami (O.) University...stellar prep career at Anderson H.S. in Cincinnati...resides with mother Jean in California.

JERRY DYBZINSKI

Infielder/#20

Given name (pronunciation): Jerome Matthew Dybzinski (dib-ZIN-ski). Nickname: "Dybber." Age: 29, turns 30 July 7. Born: July 7, 1955 at Cleveland O. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-2/188. Major league tenure: Four years, 124 days. Residence: Naperville, Ill. Contract status: Signed through 1985. Family: Married Kimra Frake October 29, 1982; sons Joshua (Novemher 5, 1979) and Jared (June 17, 1983). First pro contract: Cleveland Indians; selected 15th round, June, 1977 free agent draft. Major league debut: April 11, 1980 with Cleveland Indians (vs. California). Sox acquisition: From Cleveland Indians in exchange for infielder Pat Tabler April 1, 1983.

1984: After sharing shortstop with Scott Fletcher during the White Sox' A.L. West Division championship season in 1983, Dybzinski served in a utility role in '84...132 at bats were his lowest total since '81 at Cleveland...registered his highest monthly batting average the month he had the most at bats, hitting .308 in May with a 12-for-39 performance, including six RBI...best one-game effort occurred May 1 at Comiskey Park against New York with a three-for-three effort, three RBI including the game-winner, and a pair of stolen bases in the ChiSox' 7-5 win.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Has played for both Cleveland and Chicago in his five-year major league career. 1983: Made his first appearance in post-season play, batting .250 in two games in the ALCS against Baltimore...during the regular season, "Dybber" served the unsung role of solidifying the White Sox infield defensively...acquired just prior to the season and stepped into the starting shortstop job May 1...reeled off 105 consecutive errorless chances...timely contributions at the plate included a .313 batting average in May with 12 RBI...enjoyed a stretch of timely two-out hits in late May and early June...June 10, he owned 16 RBI of which nine came with two outs...lost the starting shortstop job to Fletcher in late July...led the club with 11 sacrifice bunts, just four shy of league leader Alan Trammell of Detroit...for better or worse, remembered for a bunting and base-running mistake in game four of the A.L.C.S. against Baltimore that decided the series. 1982: Opened the campaign as Cleveland's starting shortstop but after batting .288 in April, Dybzinski went into a prolonged slump and lost his starting job...committed 10 errors in the first 30 games then went six weeks with just one miscue...a sore shoulder forced him to the bench in early June and he subsequently was optioned to the Tribe's "AAA" franchise at Charleston...recalled by parent club in September...all told, played 80 games at Cleveland and 30 at Charleston. 1981: Enjoyed his best season at the plate, batting .298...didn't drop below .300 until the final day of the season...hit .326 over the second half while committing just three errors...missed 22 days in September with a severely sprained left ankle.

1980: Dybzinski's first season in the big leagues. . . played regularly in 114 games including 29 at second, the first time he played the position in his professional career. . . first major league hit was a home run (April 26) off Jim Kern of Texas.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent 30 games at Cleveland's "AAA" affiliate, Charleston, in 1980 to recover from a sore shoulder and an erratic bat. . . hit .299 for the Charlies during that stint. . . in '79, made the jump from "A" to "AAA" and led the Pacific Coast League's shortstops with 269 putouts while ranking second is assists (409) and double plays (91). . . stole 25 bases in both '78 and '79. . . uncharacteristically, "Dybber" clubbed 12 home runs in '78 at Waterloo but he's never hit three or more in any other professional season.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Graduated from Cleveland State University with a bachelor of arts degree in physical education and health ('77). . . most valuable player of the CSU baseball team two consecutive years. . . all-conference shortstop his senior year. . . played baseball, basketball, and football at Collinwood High School in Cleveland. . . one of the White Sox most glib players. . . residing the year around in Naperville, Ill. . . . most valuable player of the Dominican Republic Winter League in 1979-80.

Given name (pronunciation): Robert Joseph Fallon (f-AL-uhn). Age: 25. Born: February 18, 1960, New York, N.Y. Bats/throws: Left/left. Height/weight: 6-3/205. Major league tenure: Zero years, 14 days. Residence: Hollywood, Fla. Contract status: Signed through 1985. Family: Single. First pro contract: White Sox. Major league debut: April 26, 1984 with the White Sox (vs. Cleveland). Sox acquisition: Selected first round, secondary phase, June, 1979 free agent draft.

[redacted] 1984: Made major league debut during brief stint with the parent White Sox from April 26-May 8. . . appeared and started for the first time on April 26, lasting six innings at Cleveland. . . made three starts. . . his last start, May 8 at Comiskey Park against Milwaukee, was memorable since it was the beginning of the longest by-the-clock game in major league history—eight hours and six minutes. . . Fallon pitched the first six innings of the 25-inning affair, yielding just one run . . Tom Seaver won the game in relief May 9. . . Fallon recorded no decisions nor saves in '84. . . spent most of '84 at "AAA" Denver where he owned the best ERA among the Bears' starters at 3.75 while posting 101 strikeouts in 115.1 innings, a ratio of 7.9 strikeouts-per-nine innings. . . made only one appearance in the American Association playoffs, pitching two innings of shutout relief against eventual A.A. champion Louisville.

[redacted] MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: See above.

[redacted] MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent all of '83 and most of '84 at "AAA" Denver. . . in '83, Fallon led the Denver staff with 103 strikeouts in 138 innings. . . tied for the club lead in starts (23), third in wins (10), and pitched a pair of key games in the A.A. playoffs. . . September 4 he led Denver to a 9-5 win over Iowa, giving the Bears a two-games-to-one lead in the first round. . . in the title round which Denver swept in four games, Fallon allowed Louisville only two earned runs in seven innings of game three for a 9-4 victory. . . halfway through a no-hitter on August 12 against Omaha but couldn't answer the bell in the sixth inning when his left hand went numb. . . reliever Guy Hoffman allowed one hit in relief. . . cracked the 100-strikeout barrier in four of six minor league seasons. . . strictly a starter. . . finished under .500 just once.

[redacted] MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Product of one of the top collegiate baseball programs at Miami (Fla.) Dade North Junior College . . . attended Miami Dade for one year after graduating from Hollywood (Fla.) High School where he was a standout prep hurler.

CARLTON FISK

Catcher/#72

Given name: Carlton Ernest Fisk. Nickname: "Pudge." Age: 37. Born: December 26, 1947, Bellow Falls, Vt. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-2/217. Major league tenure: Thirteen years, 54 days. Residence: Lockport, Ill. Contract status: In fifth year of five-year contract. Family: Married Linda Foust April 18, 1970; children Carlyn (September 26, 1970), Carson (February 20, 1972) Courtney (February 18, 1976). First pro contract: Boston Red Sox; selected first round (fourth player in nation), January, 1967 free agent draft. Major league debut: September 6, 1971 with Boston Red Sox (vs. New York). Sox acquisition: Signed as a free agent March 10, 1981.

1984: Spent the season hampered by a abdominal muscle pull suffered Opening Day. . . forced onto the disabled list once (June 23-July 4) and appeared in only 102 games, his fewest in three seasons. . . Fisk made only 86 appearances behind the plate, 11 as a pinch hitter, and five as a designated hitter. . . despite limited duty, Fisk still became only the second catcher in White Sox history to hit at least 20 home runs in more than one season with 21 round trippers (Sherm Lollar was the other backstop to accomplish the feat). . . both registered the accomplishment twice. . . became only the third batter in ChiSox history to hit for the cycle and the first to do it at Comiskey Park when he singled, doubled, tripled, and homered against Kansas City May 16. . . prior to Fisk's fireworks, the last Sox batter to accomplish the feat was Jack Brohamer June 24, 1977 at Seattle. . . Ray Schalk, another catcher, was the first, cycling June 22, 1922 at Detroit. . . stole six bases in six '84 attempts. . . 43 RBI were the lowest total in history for a major leaguer with 20 or more home runs.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Fisk enters 1985 with 230 major league home runs, ranking him second on the all-time list of the American League's top home run-hitting catchers. . . New York's Yogi Berra leads with 313. . . Fisk also is just six homers shy of fourth place on the major league all-time list of home runs by catchers. . . the Cubs' Gabby Hartnett remains fourth. . . Cincinnati's Johnny Bench leads with 389. . . selected to A.L. All-Star team nine times. . . Fisk also has stolen 106 bases in 142 career attempts, a .746 success ratio. . . has appeared in two ALCS (Chicago in '83, Boston in '75) and one World Series (Boston in '75). ■ 1983: Finished a strong third in balloting for the American League most valuable player. . . without doubt, Fisk was a driving force in the White Sox' '83 American League West Division Championship, turning a bad year into an outstanding one. . . struggled for the first two months. . . when manager Tony La Russa moved Fisk to the second spot in the batting order on June 15, Fisk went on a tear, hitting a torrid .329 (29-for-148). . . Fisk hit .319 during the second half (88-for-176) to raise his season average to .289. . . second on the White Sox in runs (85) and third in home runs (26). . . 26-home run output matched his career single-season highs of 1973 and '77 with Boston while setting a White Sox single-season home run record for catchers. . . Fisk actually hit 27 homers but his controversial August 14 home run at Comiskey Park against Baltimore was disallowed by umpire Jim Evans. . . joined Ron Kittle (35 homers) and Greg Luzinski (32 home runs) to set a club three-man, single-season home run record of 93. ■ 1982: Third on the club in steals (17), fourth in RBI (65) and runs (66). . . put together a 12-game hitting streak (July 26-August 9) and hit safely in 23 of 25 games (July 26-August 23), driving in five runs in a game against his former teammates, the Red Sox, on July 30. ■ 1981: Fisk's first season with the White Sox after signing as a free agent produced sub-par totals of seven home runs and 45 RBI in 96 games. . . the White Sox opened the '81 season on April 10 at Boston's Fenway Park, Fisk's home the previous 10 seasons. . . in story-book fashion, Fisk fashioned a three-run home run in the eighth inning to power Chicago past the BoSox 5-3. . . in his home debut with the White Sox four days later, Fisk added to the drama by slamming a grand slam home run off Pete Vuckovich to boost the Sox to a 9-3 win over Milwaukee in front of a record home Opening Day crowd of 51,560. . . caught more games than any A.L. receiver (95) and had the fewest passed balls (two) in the league. . . the latter passed ball total was lowest for a White Sox backstop since Brian Downing was charged with only one in 1976. . . Fisk was voted The Sporting News Silver Bat Award as the most productive receiver in the American League and also was named to the United Press International all-star team. ■ 1980: In his final season with Boston, Fisk reestablished himself as an everyday catcher following an injury-plagued '79 campaign. . . caught 115 games, fifth highest total in the A.L. . . . led the league with fewest passed balls (three) for catchers in 100 or more games. . . registered his 1000th major league hit June 1 against Milwaukee, a home run off Rickey Keeton at Boston. ■ 1977: Tied a major league mark with only four passed balls in 151 games. . . became one of only six catchers in baseball history to score 100 runs and drive in 100 runs in the same season. ■ 1975: Fisk painted one of the great moments in baseball history with his dramatic 12th inning home run in game six of the World Series against Cincinnati at Boston's Fenway Park, a homer for which he supplied body English that has been documented on film and reused many times. ■ 1973: Named American League rookie-of-the-year after batting .293 with 22 home runs and 61 RBI. . . also led league catchers in total chances that earned him a Gold Glove Award.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: After missing 1967 due to military service, Fisk reached the big leagues for good by the final 14 games of Boston's '71 season. . . hit .338 in his first professional season at Waterloo. . . didn't hit .300 again until joining the Red Sox.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Fisk, wife Linda, and children Carlyn, Carson, and Courtney reside in the Chicago area (Lockport) the year around. . . wears no. 72, the reverse of his no. 27 at Boston, because ". . . that was the year my son Carson was born, it was my rookie year in the majors, and it represents a turnaround in my career.". . . selected no. 1 in the 1967 winter free agent draft by Boston. . . most valuable player in baseball, basketball, and soccer at Charlestown (N. Hamp.) High School before attending the University of New Hampshire . . . brother Calvin was a catcher in the Baltimore organization . . . Boston outfielder Rick Miller is his brother-in-law . . . Fisk's free agent signing during spring training in '81 brought instant credibility to the White Sox' new ownership group headed by Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn . . . acquired the nickname "Pudge" as a youngster in New England.

SCOTT [redacted] FLETCHER [redacted]

Infielder/#1

Given name: Scott Brian Fletcher. Nicknames: "Scooter," "Fletch." Age: 26, turns 27 July 30. Born: July 30, 1958, Fort Walton Beach, Fla. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 5-11/173. Major league tenure: Two years, 82 days. Residence: Lisle, Ill. Contract status: In second year of two-year contract. Family: Married Angela Bellamy February 4, 1984. First pro contract: Chicago Cubs; selected, secondary phase, June, 1979 free agent draft. Major league debut: April 14, 1981 with Chicago Cubs (vs. Philadelphia). Sox acquisition: With infielder Pat Tabler and pitchers Randy Martz and Dick Tidrow from Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Steve Trout and Warren Brusstar January 26, 1983.

[redacted] 1984: Steady performance in first full season as ChiSox' starting shortstop...improved his batting average by 13 points and his RBI total by four while appearing in 35 more games than his freshman campaign of '83 when he split short with Jerry Dybzinski...appeared in 149 games...keystone to ChiSox' radically improved team fielding that placed second in the American League in fielding percentage...fourth best defensive fielding percentage among A.L. shortstops with a .973 mark...made his mark against his boyhood (Wadsworth, O.) heroes, the Cleveland Indians, hitting .385 (15-for-39) against the Tribe in 12 games with four RBI and two of his three '84 home runs...enjoyed nine-for-16 series against Oakland in September...hit safely in six of his final seven games...made 16 starts at second base.

[redacted] MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: The past two seasons, Fletcher's first complete campaigns in the big leagues, he has earned his spurs as a steady performer, both in the field and at bat...one of the few major leaguers who have appeared with the White Sox and Cubs and no one else. [redacted] 1983: During Fletcher's rookie season, he experienced the thrill of winning a regular position and playing in post-season competition ...he rode the roller coaster during the regular season...he came to spring training as a candidate for a utility job, but solid defensive work and a .292 spring batting average earned him the starting shortstop job for Opening Day...after nine errors in 17 April games, he lost his starting job...he worked his way back into the starting lineup July 24 and promptly hit safely in seven straight games and batted .429 for the month of July (15-for-35)...charged with 16 errors all season, but after August 1, he committed only five miscues in 54 games, mostly as a starter...hit his first major league home run off Len Whitehouse of Minnesota June 26 at Comiskey Park in a 9-7 Chicago victory...appeared in three of Chicago's four ALCS games against Baltimore. [redacted] 1982: Summoned to the major leagues by the Cubs from "AAA" Iowa September 3, he played regularly at shortstop after Larry Bowa suffered a finger injury. [redacted] 1981: Made his major league debut on April 14, 1981 against Philadelphia... appeared in just 10 games before being optioned to Iowa.

[redacted] MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: As the starting shortstop for the Cubs' "AAA" affiliate at Iowa in 1981-82, Fletcher was among the American Association's top players...in '82, he ranked among the A.A's leading hitters at .313 while finishing second among the league's shortstops in fielding percentage at .957...finished fourth in the league with 157 hits...led league in assists (357) and total chances (607)...in '81, he finished third among shortstops defensively (.952) while leading the group in putouts (222)...Fletcher enjoyed a banner season in 1980 for Midland of the "AA" Texas League...voted the league's "most popular player" and the loop's all-star second baseman . . . led the circuit in runs (111) and triples (11) while finishing seventh in the batting race at .327 . . . led the league in defense at second with 354 putouts, 390 assists, and 112 double plays . . . the New York/Penn League's rookie-of-the-year in 1979 with a .310 batting average for Geneva . . . hit a grand slam home run in his first official professional at bat in the opening game of the season, June 19, 1979.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Married Angela Ballamy February 4, 1983 . . . the couple resides in the Chicago area the year around . . . Fletcher signed his first professional contract with the Cubs after being drafted three previous times by the Dodgers, A's, and Astros . . . played collegiately at Valencia (Fla.) Junior College and Georgia Southern . . . led Georgia Southern to the NCAA-Division I Atlantic Regional tournament . . . father Dick is an assistant football coach at the University of Akron . . . at Valencia, Fletcher was named Florida junior college player-of-the-year and the all-Florida Division II shortstop . . . hit .413 in 61 games at Georgia Southern . . . his professional drafts: Houston, June of 1978; Oakland, January of 1978; Los Angeles, June of 1976 . . . he was the Cubs' first choice of the secondary phase of the '79 June draft.

MARC HILL

Catcher/#7

Given name: Marc Kevin Hill. Nickname: "Booter." Age: 33. Born: February 18, 1952, Ellsberry, Mo. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-3/240. Major league tenure: Ten years, 69 days. Residence: Clearwater, Fla. Contract status: In first year of two-year contract. Family: Married Cheri Trudell April 6, 1973; children Kevin (November 17, 1974), Kyle (June 21, 1979) and Kara (May 12, 1984). First pro contract: St. Louis Cardinals; selected 10th round, June, 1970 free agent draft. Major league debut: September 28, 1973 with St. Louis Cardinals (vs. Philadelphia). Sox acquisition: Signed as a free agent February 12, 1981.

1984: Veteran reserve catcher appeared in 77 games, his highest total since 1978 as a San Francisco Giant, due to the season-long battle regular backstop Carlton Fisk waged with an abdominal muscle pull. . . hit five homers, his highest total since 1977 when he belted his personal high of nine. . . 20 RBI also were his best effort since '77. . . five-game hitting streak in late April and early May. . . threw out the first four base runners who attempted to steal on him and 13 of 29 for the season. . . made 55 starts.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: The 10-year veteran has come to be regarded as one of the game's top back-up catchers. 1983: Appeared in 58 games as Fisk's reserve. . . Hill, not noted for his foot speed, scored from second base on a sacrifice fly off the bat of pinch hitter Greg Walker at Yankee Stadium May 15. . . two runners scored on the play. . . combined with Fisk to hit 27 home runs (Fisk had 26), most by White Sox catchers in one season. . . Hill did not appear in the '83 A.L. playoff series against Baltimore. 1982: First full season with the White Sox. . . appeared in 53 games. . . made 27 starts. . . committed only one error in 53 appearances. . . hit a two-run homer against Cleveland in his 500th game on May 21. . . first American League three-hit game at Yankee Stadium August 3. . . shot down seven of 16 would-be base stealers. 1981: Played behind both Fisk and Jim Essian. . . appeared in only 15 games in the strike-shortened season. 1980: Appeared in only 17 games for the Giants before Seattle acquired him through waivers June 20. . . appeared in only 29 games with the Mariners. 1979: Last season as a regular. . . suffered a broken left wrist in a home plate collision with the Mets' John Stearns July 24. . . in 63 games, Hill committed only three errors while throwing out 18 runners attempting to steal. 1977-79: Caught regularly for San Francisco. . . hit .250 in 320 at bats in '77, his best single-season batting average. . . also posted career one-campaign bests of nine homers and 50 RBI in '77. 1973: Made his major league debut with the St. Louis Cardinals September 28 at the age of 21. . . in his only big league appearance that season, he caught a two-hit shutout of Philadelphia.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: When the parent White Sox faced a numbers squeeze on their roster in 1981, Hill agreed to report to "AA" Glens Falls from August 15-September 1 to alleviate the problem. . . named to all-star teams at three levels of minor league competition as a St. Louis Cardinal farmhand — Gulf Coast League (1970), Texas League (1973), and American Association (1974). . . hit 14 home runs at Tulsa in '74, the only time in Hill's professional career he hit double figures in home runs in one season.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Born and raised 50 miles from Busch Stadium in St. Louis where he grew up watching the Cardinals. . .

originally signed by the Cardinals in 1970...spent five seasons in the Cards' farm system...all-Missouri choice as a prep baseball and basketball star...first athlete in the history of Lincoln County (Mo.) High School to win letters in three sports (baseball, basketball, and track) as a sophomore...father Edward was a pitcher in the St. Louis Browns' organization in the 1940s...one of the finest golfers in baseball.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Comiskey Park has been the site of three All-Star Games — 1933 (the inaugural), 1950, and 1983 (the golden anniversary). The American League won baseball's first All-Star tilt (July 6, 1933) 4-2 on a two-run home run by New York's Babe Ruth in front of an official crowd of 47,595 that police estimated closer to 49,000. On July 11, 1950, the National League prevailed 4-3 in 14 innings. On July 6, 1983, California's Fred Lynn duplicated Ruth's heroics of exactly 50 years earlier with the first grand slam home run in All-Star Game history, leading the A.L. to a 13-3 rout of the N.L. The American Leaguers' 13 runs were an All-Star Game record and the victory snapped an embarrasing 11-game losing streak.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Comiskey Park's generous outfield dimensions, long the bane of American League sluggers, are credited in part to former White Sox pitching great Ed Walsh who was a member of the park's planning committee when it was being designed for construction. Walsh's original dimensions — 362 feet to the left and right field foul poles and 420 to center field — since have been shortened.

AL JONES

Pitcher/#49

Given name: Alfornia Jones. Age: 26. Born: February 10, 1959, Charleston, Miss. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 5-11/178. Major league tenure: Zero years, 88 days. Residence: Charleston, Miss. Contract status: Signed through 1985. Family: Single. First pro contract: White Sox. Major league debut: June 4, 1983 with White Sox (vs. Baltimore). Sox acquisition: Selected 13th round, June, 1981 free agent draft.

1984: Divided his time between the parent White Sox and their "AAA" affiliate at Denver...began the campaign at Denver, but after notching a 1-1 record with one save and a 0.00 ERA in his first five appearances, he was summoned to Chicago April 29...his first appearance against Boston the same day brought him his first major league save after retiring Dwight Evans with a strikeout to end the game...made five more appearances before allowing his first run May 27 at Texas...recorded his first major league victory June 30 by pitching the final inning of an 11-inning 5-4 win over Baltimore...optioned to Denver July 10 where he completed the season with a 2-3 record, seven saves, and a 4.71 ERA in 28.2 innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Jones has seen big league action the past two seasons. 1983: Made his major league debut August 6 against Baltimore...made two appearances before returning to "A" Appleton.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Performance at Midwest League champion "A" Appleton in 1983 brought him the distinction of being named the best relief pitcher in the minor leagues...spent all but a few days at Appleton where he led the Midwest League in winning percentage (.971 from 11-1) and appearances (55)...also second in the league in saves (22)...anchored the league's best pitching staff...his 0.97 ERA easily was tops in the league but he lacked nine innings to qualify for the ERA title...named Rolaids minor league relief pitcher-of-the-year and Midwest League player-of-the-year at season's end...yielded just one home run and struck out 124 batters in 102 innings...from May 5-July 9, he allowed only one earned run in 47.2 innings...promoted to "AAA" Denver August 1 but was promoted to the parent White Sox August 6 before he had thrown a "AAA" pitch...a starter early in his career...posted a 1.40 ERA in his rookie season of 1981 at Sarasota of Florida's Gulf Coast Rookie League...switched to relief in '82...owns 249 strikeouts in 245.2 minor league innings.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: An outstanding fielder...a hard thrower...graduated from East Tallahatchie High School in Charleston, Miss. in 1977...six hours short of his bachelor's degree from Alcorn State University.

RUDY LAW

Outfielder/#23

Given Name: Rudy Karl Law. Nickname: "Lawman." Age: 28, turns 29 October 7. Born: October 7, 1956 at Waco, Tex. Bats/throws: Left/left. Height/weight: 6-2/180. Major league tenure: Four years, 22 days. Residence: Inglewood, Calif. Contract status: In second year of two-year contract. Family: Married Evelyn Silva, May 17, 1980; son Randy (October 23, 1983). First pro contract: Los Angeles Dodgers; signed as a free agent September 1, 1975. Major league debut: September 12, 1978 with Los Angeles Dodgers (vs. San Francisco). Sox acquisition: From Los Angeles in exchange for pitch Burt Geiger and outfielder Cecil Espy March 30, 1982.

1984: Led club with 29 stolen bases...hit .380 (41-for-108) in his first 30 games...never regained early form after suffering leg injury (pulled hamstring) in mid-May...batting average eventually dipped to .251, the lowest average of his four-year major league career...hit a personal single-season high of six home runs...second on the club in runs (68) and third in multiple-hit games (31)...lost his uniform no. 11 August 14th when the White Sox retired the number in honor of their former shortstop great, Luis Aparicio, who had been inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y. two days earlier...consistent with .250 batting average at home and .251 on the road...hit .455 (5-for-11) as a pinch-hitter, including one homer...hit .310 in April and .361 in May but never bettered .255 (August) in any of the other months.

MAJOR LEAGUE: The speedy outfielder has averaged 45.5 stolen bases in his four full major league seasons...has stolen 142 bases in 181 attempts with the White Sox. 1983: Enjoyed the finest season of his career...led the White Sox with a .389 batting average (7-for-18) in the ALCS against Baltimore...his seven hits were the most on either team...after being rescued from the L.A. Dodgers' "AAA" team at Albuquerque, Law proved to be the catalyst on the bases for the ChiSox' West Division title drive, stealing a team record 77 bases to eclipse the old mark of 56 set by Luis Aparicio (1959) and Wally Moses (1943)...77 steals were second in the A.L....led the team total of 165 stolen bases, most by the White Sox in 40 years (since stealing 173 in 1943)...led A.L. outfielders with a .994 fielding percentage, committing only two errors in 309 total chances...thus became first White Sox outfielder to lead the league in defense since Pat Kelly in 1975 (.991)...best fielding percentage by a Pale Hose outfielder since Ken Berry set the team record in 1969 when he was errorless in 222 total chances. 1982: First year with the White Sox and first time in the American League...primarily a utility outfielder during the first half of the season...earned the starting job in center and lead-off spot in the batting order July 1...sizzled the rest of the year, leading the club in hitting (.318) and stolen bases (36) and tied for second in triples (8)...stole 18 consecutive bases from June 16-August 30...hit his first A.L. homer May 8 at Detroit...hit .328 during the second half. ■ 1980: Spent the entire season with the L.A. Dodgers...hit .341 during spring training and .329 in April...Dodgers' Opening Day center fielder...slumped at the plate and lost his regular job by mid-season...still set a Dodger rookie record for stolen bases (40) that was broken by Steve Sax. ■ 1978: Made his major league debut with 12 September appearances...first game was September 12 versus San Francisco...recorded his first three major league hits against Cincinnati September 28.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Hit .335 and stole 56 bases for "AAA" Albuquerque in '81 after spending the previous season with the parent Dodgers...posted a 15-game hitting streak and boasted nine three-hit games, including the Pacific Coast League championship contest against Tacoma September 6...stole 79 bases at Albuquerque in '78 before being recalled by the Dodgers in September...hit .386 at Lodi in '77 and .335 in his first professional season, 1976, at Bellingham.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Despite hitting .300 and stealing 24 bases in his senior year at Ravenswood High School in East Palo Alto, Calif., Law was bypassed in the June free agent draft of 1975...signed by the Dodgers as a free agent late in the summer of '75.

TIM LOLLAR

Pitcher/#46

Given name: William Timothy Lollar. Age: 28, turns 29 March 17. Born: March 17, 1956, Poplar Bluff, Mo. Bats/throws: Left/left. Height/weight: 6-3/195. Major league tenure: Four years, 73 days. Residence: San Diego, Calif. Contract status: In second year of four-year contract with one option year. Family: Married Robyn Schaub February 12, 1983; son Christopher (February 7, 1984). First pro contract: New York Yankees, selected fourth round, June, 1978, free agent draft. Major league debut: June 28, 1980 with New York Yankees (vs. Cleveland). Sox acquisition: With infielders Luis Salazar and Ozzie Guillen and pitcher Bill Long from San Diego in exchange for pitchers LaMarr Hoyt, Todd Simmons, and Kevin Kristan December 6, 1984.

1984: Enjoyed his first taste of post-season play as a member of N.L. champ San Diego's starting rotation . . . Lollar started game four of the NLCS against Chicago, pitching 4.1 innings without earning San Diego's 7-5 victory . . . started game three of the World Series against Detroit, lasting just 1.2 innings and taking the loss in the Tigers' 5-2 win . . . included in the hard-throwing lefty's 11-13 season was a strong mid-season stretch when he won five of six games and posted a 2.66 ERA in 40.2 innings during the stretch . . . his top outing of the hot spell was his 6-0 whitewashing of Cincinnati, limiting the Reds to four hits and fanning 12 batters, equalling his personal career single-game high and San Diego's 1984 best . . . Lollar also recorded his career low-hit best against Houston July 29, blanking the Astros 9-0 on two hits . . . notched the victory in San Diego's division-clinching triumph over San Francisco September 20 . . . Lollar not only earned the historic victory for the 16-year-old franchise but also clubbed a three-run homer . . . considered one of the top hitting pitchers in baseball . . . will be given an opportunity to earn the right to bat for the White Sox . . . hit over .300 for the first one-third of the season and set a single-season RBI record for San Diego pitchers with 15 . . . his biggest game at the plate occurred May 15 at Montreal when he went two-for-three with a home run and four RBI . . . turned in a flawless 1.000 fielding percentage, handling 23 total chances (22 assists and one putout) and participating in one double play.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: One of the National League's most established pitchers, Lollar has started over 30 games in each of the past three seasons. 1983: Left spring training with a tender left elbow that bothered him most of the season . . . after winning the Padres' season opener against San Francisco, he didn't record another victory until July 16, missing nearly three weeks due to elbow soreness (April 17-May 6)...luck wasn't in his corner, either...of his 12 losses, San Diego was blanked five times and averaged only 1.6 runs per Lollar outing...despite his problems, Lollar still led Padres' hurlers with 135 strikeouts...took no-hitters into the seventh inning twice (against the Giants and Braves) and lost both times. ■ 1982: Enjoyed his best season, winning 16 games against nine losses and posting a 3.13 ERA...considered one of the National League's top pitchers...ranked among the top five southpaws in the N.L. in a variety of statistics — third in strikeouts (150), fourth in victories (16), fourth in innings pitched (233.2), and fifth in ERA (3.13)...opened the season with five consecutive wins...notched his first major league shutout and complete game against the Mets (6-0) with a five-hitter...was overlooked for the N.L. all-star team despite a 10-2 record and 2.71 ERA at the break...opposing batters accumulated a composite batting average of just .225 against Lollar (.165 by lefties, .236 by righties)...yielded but one unearned run the entire season...first loss of the year was a 2-1 verdict at Pittsburgh June 6...always a threat at bat, Lollar hit safely in his first seven starts...accrued 11 RBI for the season...hit home runs against Atlanta and New York (twice)...twice used as a pinch hitter. ■ 1981: Obtained from the Yankees just prior to the start of the season, Lollar struggled to a 2-8 record in his first full season in the major leagues and his first as a National Leaguer...earned his first N.L. win April 17 in a relief effort against the Dodgers...collected his first major league hit, a homer, off Cincinnati's Tom Seaver April 28...snapped an eight-game losing streak with a 7-2 win at San Francisco. ■ 1980: Recorded his first major league victory in his first major league start on the final day of the season by leading the Yankees to a 2-1 win over Detroit.

■ MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent his entire minor league career in the Yankees' farm system, never pitching lower than the "AA" Eastern League...in 1979 at West Haven, Lollar also was used as a designated hitter, batting .255 with two doubles, one triple, and two home runs...struck out 130 batters in 199 innings...for his minor league career, Lollar appeared in 93 games as a hitter, batting .237 with seven homers and 22 RBI.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Not related to former White Sox catching great, Sherm Lollar...married the former Robyn Schaub just prior to spring training in 1983 (February 12)...met his wife while she was covering the Padres as a sports reporter for a San Diego television station...the couple's first child, Christopher, was born February 7, 1984...just prior to the '81 season, Lollar, Ruppert Jones, Chris Welsh, and Joe Lefebvre were traded from the Yankees to San Diego for Jerry Mumphrey and John Pacella...Lollar was named the Southwest Conference most valuable player as an Arkansas Razorback in 1978...also tabbed an all-America designated hitter by The Sporting News that year...majored in forestry at Arkansas.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

One of the most unusual happenings in baseball history occurred at Comiskey Park July 1, 1962 when the White Sox hit a major league record three sacrifice flies in the fifth inning of the second game of a doubleheader against the Cleveland Indians. Pitcher Juan Pizarro, second baseman Nellie Fox, and left fielder Al Smith were the three hitters.

TOM [redacted] SEAVER

Pitcher/#41

Given name: George Thomas Seaver. Age: 40. Born: November 17, 1944, Fresno, Calif. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-1/221. Major league tenure: Eighteen years. Residence: Greenwich, Conn. Contract status: Signed through 1985 with two option years. Family: Married Nancy McIntyre (June 9, 1966); daughters Sarah (February 24, 1971) and Anne (October 28, 1975). First pro contract: New York Mets, signed April 3, 1966. Major league debut: April 11, 1967 with Mets (vs. Pittsburgh). Sox acquisition: Selected in compensation draft January 23, 1984.

1984: American League debut following 17 seasons in the National League...at 39 years of age, Seaver led the White Sox in victories (15) and shutouts (4)...climbed to within 12 wins of the coveted 300 circle...second on the club in innings (236.2)...never missed a turn in the rotation...shutout total second in the American League...started one of four White Sox combined shutouts, victimized by shutouts three times, losing two of those games by scores of 1-0 and 2-0, and won a game against California in which both runs scored against him were unearned...recorded two three-hit and two four-hit efforts...completed 10 games...complete games and shutout totals his best since 1977...inning count his highest since '78...allowed 27 home runs, his career high...only Sox pitcher to allow a Comiskey Park roof-top home run (Detroit's Ruppert Jones July 3)...15-11 record remarkable considering the lack of support he received from the White Sox bullpen...six times Seaver left games with the lead only to have the bullpen lose it...a seventh time he left with the score tied but was charged with the loss...made history May 9 when he won both ends of a unique doubleheader...pitched the final inning of the 25-inning suspended game of May 8 against Milwaukee (the longest by-the-clock game in baseball history) and made and won his regularly-scheduled start in the nightcap, pitching 8.1 innings...first Sox pitcher to win twice in one day since Wilbur Wood May 28, 1973...lost A.L. debut to Detroit April 8...didn't notch first A.L. win until May 4 against Boston, the first of four consecutive triumphs...his second White Sox triumph, May 9 versus Milwaukee, was his 275th career success...season high of eight strikeouts against California June 6...passed Don Sutton, Bob Gibson, Pud Galvin, and Ed Walsh on the all-time shutout list...remained no. 5 on the all-time strikeout list but moved to within 105 Ks of no. 4 Walter Johnson...moved passed Ted Lyons, Burleigh Grimes, Ed Plank, Jim

JOEL SKINNER

Catcher/#22

Given name: Joel Patrick Skinner. Nickname: "Skins." Age: 24. Born: February 21, 1961, La Jolla, Calif. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-4/204. Major league tenure: Zero years, 108 days. Residence: San Diego, Calif. Contract status: Pending at press time. Family: Married Jennifer Hutcheson February 5, 1983. First pro contract: Pittsburgh Pirates; selected 36th round, June, 1979 free agent draft. Major league debut: June 12, 1983 with the White Sox (vs. Oakland). Sox acquisition: Selected in player compensation pool draft from Pittsburgh February 2, 1982.

1984: Appeared in 43 games for the White Sox during three separate stints with the parent ball club...the up-and-down physical season endured by regular catcher Carlton Fisk kept Skinner traveling between "AAA" Denver and Chicago...his Chicago tours were May 23-June 10, June 13-July 19, and September 5 through the end of the season...hit .284 at Denver, his best batting average to date as a professional...added 10 home runs...suffered a fractured wrist diving back to first base shortly after his final return to Denver that healed in time to play with the White Sox in September.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Skinner has spent portions of two seasons with the White Sox. 1983: Skinner's contract was purchased by the White Sox June 12 when Fisk suffered a sore shoulder...made his major league debut the same day and went two-for-four at the plate...returned to Denver June 15 and then to Chicago in mid-September...appeared in six games altogether.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Skinner was chosen the top major league prospect in the Eastern League in 1982 and the American Association in '83...hit a respectable .260 in '83, his first season at the "AAA" level, for the A.A. champion Bears...member of the 1984 A.A. all-star team, his third all-star selection in his last three professional seasons...also voted the A.A.'s best defensive catcher and catcher with the best throwing arm...Eastern League all-star catcher in '82...all-star catcher in the South Atlantic League in '81, his first professional season.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Son of former major league and current Pittsburgh coach Bob Skinner...joined the White Sox organization February 2, 1982 when the Pale Hose selected him over some 2,000 other professional players in the first compensation draft...the choice came from the Phillies' signing of Sox free agent reliever Ed Farmer in January of 1982...Farmer was a "type A" free agent, giving the White Sox a chance to make baseball history and yank the promising Skinner from the Pittsburgh organization.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Ed Walsh was the whole show in 1911. Besides posting an amazing 27-18 season, he also was the winner of "Comiskey Field Day," an exhibition of baseball skill pitting ball players from competing teams in the 100-yard dash, the shot put, and a fungo-hitting contest. Walsh captured 1911 honors when he swatted a 419-foot fungo, bettering the mark set in 1907 by Mike Mitchell of Cincinnati.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Only three White Sox players have homered 20 or more times in Comiskey Park in the same season. Dick Allen (27, 1972), Bill Melton (23, 1970), and Zeke Bonura (21, 1934), all right-handed hitters, comprise the trio.

GREG WALKER

First Baseman/#29

Given name: Gregory Lee Walker. Age: 25, turns 26 October 6. Born: October 6, 1959, Douglas, Ga. Bats/throws: Left/right. Height/weight: 6-3/210. Major league tenure: Two years, 19 days. Residence: Douglas, Ga. Contract status: In second year of two-year contract. Family: Married Carmen Kirkland March 10, 1979; daughters Kaycee (October 17, 1979) and Leigh Ann (January 16, 1984). First pro contract: Philadelphia Phillies, selected 20th round, June, 1977 free agent draft. Major league debut: September 16, 1982 with the White Sox (vs. Oakland). Sox acquisition: From Philadelphia in major league draft December 4, 1979.

1984: Blossomed into the White Sox' everyday first baseman... enjoyed an outstanding sophomore season, hitting .294 with 24 home runs and 75 RBI, all personal single-season highs...24 homers were tops by a Pale Hose first baseman since Dick Allen clubbed 32 in 1974...hit .308 during the second half...closed with a surge, batting .381 (37-for-97) in September with six homers and 20 RBI to earn American League player-of-the-month honors...September was his fourth month of .300 or better hitting...hit .300 in April, .301 in June, and .315 in August...first hit of season off a left-handed pitcher (Cleveland's Neal Heaton) was a game-winning home run (July 5)...finished second on the club in batting average and RBI...third in home runs...second only to Harold Baines in multiple-hit games with 36...owned the team's second longest consecutive-game hitting streak with 14...also won A.L. player-of-the-week honor for his play of September 3-9 when he hit .520 with five homers and 11 RBI, including a pair of three-hit games... enjoyed the most productive game of his young career September 4 at Oakland with two home runs and six RBI...four-hit game at Minnesota June 22...hit three homers in two-game span at Milwaukee August 4 and 6...surprised with fielding improvement, committing only four errors in 846 total chances, a .995 fielding percentage.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: The former Philadelphia Phillie farm hand has played two full seasons with the White Sox and a portion of one other, 1983: Appeared in two ALCS games against Baltimore, pinch hitting in game two and starting at first base in game four...collected one hit and one walk in four plate appearances in the fourth game...after his second consecutive outstanding spring, Walker won the Opening Day starting assignment at first base...committed two errors, prompting manager Tony La Russa to be more gradual in introducing Walker to everyday play...used primarily as a pinch hitter and led the American League with 15 pinch RBI...made 42 pinch appearances, second only to Jerry Hairston, and hit a club-high .371, including two home runs...employed as designated hitter 21 times, batting .311 in that role (23-for-74) with three home runs and six RBI. 1982: Injuries to White Sox first basemen Tom Paciorek and Mike Squires prompted an unexpected call for Walker September 15...made his major league debut September 16 at Comiskey Park with a pinch single in his first big league at bat...batted in eight games the final two weeks of the season and hit safely in six, including his last five in a row...appeared in 11 games altogether, hitting .412 with two home runs and seven RBI...first major league home run came at Comiskey Park September 27 off Seattle's Bob Stoddard.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Spent only 35 games at the "AAA" level, all in 1982...grand plan had him penciled in as regular first sacker for White Sox "AAA" affiliate at Edmonton but a broken right wrist knocked him out of action for three months (April 22-July 23)...still hit .350 with three homers and 12 RBI...suffered the injury on a tag play at first base...the everyday first baseman for the White Sox most successful 1981 farm club, the Glens Falls (N.Y.) White Sox, winner of both halves of the North Division of the "AA" Eastern League...the team posted a composite 94-52 record...Walker finished third in the Eastern League in hitting (.321) while leading the circuit in runs (117), hits (163), and doubles (33)...also hit 22 homers...led the "AA" Midwest League in RBI with 98 in 1980 while at Appleton.

■ MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Originally signed by the Philadelphia Phillies' organization...left unprotected in the annual major league draft in December of 1979...standout baseball and football player at Coffee High School in his native Douglas, Ga. where he still makes his permanent home...rooms with long-time friend Ron Kittle on the road.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Third baseman Bill Melton entered the final game of the 1971 season on September 30, 1971 tied with Norm Cash and Reggie Jackson for the American League lead in home runs with 32. Melton, 26, was inserted into the leadoff spot by manager Chuck Tanner in an attempt to possibly give Melton one additional at bat.

With only 2,814 fans in attendance, Melton deposited a third-inning breaking ball from Milwaukee's Bill Parsons into the left-field seats for his 33rd home run. Melton tossed his batting helmet to the crowd while security personnel retrieved the ball.

Melton became the first White Sox player in history to win the A.L. home run title (Dick Allen earned the same notoriety the following season.)

BART JOHNSON

Pitcher/#71

Given name: Clair Barth Johnson. Age: 35. Born: January 3, 1950, Torrance, Calif. Bats/throws: Right/right. Height/weight: 6-5/215. Major league tenure: Six years, 103 days. Residence: Darien, Ill. Contract status: Pending at press time. Family: Married Susan Vina Dunlap December 24, 1975; children Brent (May 29, 1969), Jamie (July 12, 1970), Jason (September 8, 1978), Kim (September 23, 1981) and Jenessa (March 6, 1984). First pro contract: White Sox. Major league debut: September 8, 1969 with the White Sox (vs. Seattle). Sox acquisition: Contract under negotiation with Toluca of the Mexican League at the outset of spring training.

1984: Continued his role as advance major league scout for the White Sox...did not play organized baseball.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Johnson has not pitched in the major leagues since the 1977 season when he won four of nine decisions for the White Sox...Sox released him at the conclusion of spring training in 1978 due to back problems...had a brief stint in the Oakland organization and pitched one inning for the A's farm club at Vancouver in April, 1978...invited to the Pirates' spring camp in 1979...first broke in with the White Sox in 1969 as a 19-year-old flame thrower...won one game that season and four in 1970 before posting his first winning season in 1971 with a 12-10 mark...struck out 153 batters in 178 innings that year...enjoyed finest major league success in 1974 with a 10-4 record...a slip on the mound near the end of spring drills in 1975 caused a back injury that required surgery and forced him to sit out the entire season...returned to duty in 1976 but clearly had lost some of his effectiveness...posted marks of 9-16 in '76 and 4-5 in '77 before the Sox released him...despite the back problems, he threw more innings in 1976 than any other big league season.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Enjoyed a 16-4 season at "A" Appleton in 1969 that hurried his rise to the major leagues...struck out 200 batters in 22 games and 170 innings that summer at Appleton...spent partial seasons at Tucson ("AAA") and Mobile ("AA") in 1970 and won seven of 11 outings...returned to Appleton and Knoxville ("AA") in 1972 to play in the outfield in an experimental move...batted .329 in 50 games at Appleton and .277 in 13 tilts with Knoxville...started the 1974 campaign at Iowa before having the successful season with the Sox...started eight games for Tony LaRussa's "AAA" Iowa club in '79 and finished with a 1-5 slate...pitched in Mexico in 1980 prior to a players' strike that shortened the season.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: Joined the Sox' scouting staff in the summer of 1980 when a players' strike interrupted the Mexican League schedule...worked both the northern and southern California areas for the next three years...assumed the Sox' advance scouting duties in 1983 when illness forced Loren Babe out of that position...an outstanding prep athlete in Torrance, Calif....a college prospect in basketball as well as baseball...attended Brigham Young University and enjoyed a stellar freshman basketball season, averaging 29 points per game...this year's comeback attempt is his first effort to play organized baseball since his stint in the Mexican League in 1980.

BRYAN [redacted] LITTLE

Infielder/#47

Given name: Richard Bryan Little. Age: 25, turns 26 October 8. Born: October 8, 1959, Houston, Tex. Bats/throws: Switch/right. Height/weight: 5-10/160. Major league tenure: Two years, 32 days. Residence: Hearne, Tex. Contract status: Signed through 1985. Family: Single. First pro contract: Montreal Expos; selected ninth round, June, 1980 free agent draft. Major league debut: July 29, 1982 with Montreal (vs. St. Louis). Sox acquisition: From Montreal in exchange for pitcher Bert Roberge, December 7, 1984.

1984: Split his time between Montreal and the Expos' "AAA" farm club at Indianapolis... played second base and shortstop for the Expos, appearing in 85 games...got off to a quick start and finished the year with a .244 average...12 of his 65 hits went for extra bases...batted .292 in 35 games at Indianapolis...played the biggest chunk of his time with the parent club at second base where he finished the '84 season with a .982 fielding mark...only six second basemen who played as often as he did had better fielding marks for the year.

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Made major league debut with the Expos in 1982 and played a considerable amount (102 games) for Montreal the following season...opened the 1983 season as the Expos' starting shortstop...played 66 games at short and 51 at second base that season...considered an outstanding bunter, a facet of the game that many now consider a lost art...led the National League in bunt hits in 1983 with 24.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Moved up the Expos' farm ladder from Class "A" Jamestown to "AAA" Wichita before being called up to the parent club in 1982...batted .293 for the Memphis Chicks (Southern League) in 1981 and .286 for Wichita in 82...did not play at all in the minor leagues in 1983.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL: As a rookie, Little was voted the major leagues' best bunter in a New York Times player poll and in balloting of all major league managers by the Toronto Star.

Pinch Hitting Notes

■ White Sox pinch hitters not only led the American League in pinch home runs in 1984 (nine) but also set a Sox team record for pinch home runs in one season. The Sox' previous best mark was six pinch homers, hit in 1961 and 1953. ■ Sox pinch hitters also led the American League in fewest times grounding into double plays: one. (Two other clubs also recorded just one pinch GIDP but had fewer pinch at bats). ■ Jerry Hairston, for the second year in a row, led all American League pinch hitters in most pinch safeties with a career one-season high of 18. That total is one better than his 1983 league-leading total of 17. In addition, Hairston boosted his total career pinch hits in a White Sox uniform to 50. That ties him for most pinch hits by a Sox batter. The original mark was set by Smoky Burgess.

Attendance Notes

■ The White Sox set a single-season home attendance mark for the second consecutive year when 2,136,988 fans passed through the turnstiles at Comiskey Park. The 1984 figure surpassed the mark of 2,132,821 set in 1983. ■ The Sox' 1984 home attendance figure established a city of Chicago sports attendance record for the second year in a row. No other sports franchise in Chicago history has drawn as many fans as the '84 Sox. ■ The Sox became the first Chicago sports franchise to top the 2,000,000 mark two seasons in a row. The Sox now have drawn a combined total of more than four and a quarter million the last two seasons (4,269,809 is the exact figure). ■ The White Sox and Chicago Cubs combined to draw more than 4,000,000 fans to major league baseball games in Chicago. The Sox' season total of 2,136,988 added to the Cubs' season total of 2,109,043 gave the city of Chicago a combined attendance mark of 4,246,031. ■ Sox attendance was third best in the American League and fourth best in major league baseball. In the A.L., only Detroit (2,704,794) and California (2,402,997) bettered the Sox. In the National League, only the Los Angeles Dodgers — who led the major leagues in attendance — topped the Sox. The Dodgers drew 3,134,824. ■ The Sox enjoyed a stretch of 45 consecutive home dates in the middle of the season — from May 30 through September 3 — when attendance was at least 20,000. Over that 45-date span, they averaged 30,544 per date. ■ The Sox accrued a string of eight dates in July when they drew a minimum of 30,000 or more per home date. And, from June 28 through July 31, they drew 30,000 or more on 15 of 16 home dates, averaging 34,451 per date over those 16 home dates. ■ The best month of the season for the Sox was July when they drew a total of 449,366 in 13 home dates, an average of 34,567.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

After setting city of Chicago single-season attendance records the past two seasons, the Chicago White Sox franchise appears to be as healthy as any time in its colorful, if not always successful, 85-year history.

A charter member of the American League when it formed in 1900, the White Sox remained under the tight rein of the team's founder and owner, Charles Albert Comiskey, and his heirs for the first one-half of the 20th century.

Comiskey, son of the first head of Chicago's City Council, itinerant pitcher, first baseman, manager, and entrepreneur, recognized Chicago would support more than one professional baseball team. With that in mind, Comiskey purchased the St. Paul, Minn. franchise of the Western League and moved it to Chicago to play in 1900. By no small coincidence, the Western League reorganized that same year and adopted a new name: the American League.

Although it was not officially recognized as a "major league" until the following year, 1901, the American League was here to stay! Despite a howl of protest from the established National League team in Chicago, known as the "White Stockings" until a few seasons earlier, Comiskey adopted the name "White Stockings" for his new team.

Comiskey's new franchise enjoyed an auspicious start in 1900 and in 1901. The White Stockings won the league title in 1900 with an 82-53 record and came back to win the first "official" American League pennant in 1901 with an almost identical 83-53 slate.

The first game played in the American League was in Chicago April 24, 1901, as the White Sox, as they already had come to be known, defeated Cleveland 8-2 in one hour and 30 minutes in front of a reported crowd of 14,000 fans at the Sox' home grounds leased from the Chicago Cricket Club on 39th Street between Wentworth and Princeton. The White Sox' first manager was Clark Griffith, later to become owner of the Washington Senators.

White Sox Firsts

There were many other interesting "firsts" by the White Sox in the early years. Herm McFarland and "Dummy" Hoy hit grand slam home runs in the same game, May 1, 1901 to become the first batters in the American League to hit grand slams. The Sox have not hit grand slam homers in the same game since.

Jim Callahan, later to become manager of the White Sox, pitched the club's first no-hitter, September 20, 1902, beating Detroit 3-0.

The first World Series was played in 1903, but the Chicago nine suffered through a couple of down years before making their first appearance in the Fall Classic in 1906. That Series proved to be the one and only meeting in a World Series between the Chicago crosstown rivals in history. The White Sox, setting the pattern that was to be their style for many decades to come, finished the 1906 season second in the American League in pitching and dead last in hitting. The Cubs were heavy pre-Series favorites but the "Hitless Wonders" of the Southside took the World Series four games to two.

The White Sox won the American League pennant again in 1917, defeating the New York Giants in six games for their only World Series championship to date.

Black To White

Many famous personalities wore the White Sox flannels through their early years, including "Big" Ed Walsh, Griffith, Ed Collins, Harry Hooper, Fielder Jones, "Doc" White, Lee Tannehill, and Nixey Callahan.

Unfortunately, their deeds were overshadowed by the heartbreaking experience of the infamous "Black Sox" scandal when several members of the White Sox were found guilty of conspiring with gamblers to lose the 1919 World Series (although the scandal was not uncovered until the end of the 1920 season). Eight players eventually were expelled from baseball for life, and the scandal had a far-reaching effect on the club's fortunes for an extended period. It would be 1957 before a White Sox team again would finish as high as second place.

From 1957-67, the White Sox again became a highly competitive team by posting a .500 or better won-loss record every year. During that era, names like Nellie Fox, Luis Aparicio, Minnie Minoso, Billy Pierce, Sherm Lollar, Al Smith, Gary Peters, Joel Horlen, Jim Landis, Dick Donovan, "Jungle" Jim Rivera, Early Wynn, Eddie Stanky, and Al "The Senor" Lopez grabbed Chicago's sports headlines.

Lopez, whose teams finished second or better in six of his nine years as White Sox manager, brought joy back to Southside fans by giving them the club's fifth American League pennant in 1959, the first A.L. title for a White Sox team in 40 years and since. The "Go-Go" White Sox lost the World Series to the Los Angeles Dodgers in six games.

The Senor's Void

Following Lopez's departure in 1967, there was a demise both on the field and at the gate. The low-water mark came during the dismal 1970 season when the Pale Hose recorded the worst won-loss record in baseball (56-106) and season attendance plunged to its lowest ebb since 1942 (496,355).

But toward the end of the '70 season, a pair of management changes signaled the dawn of a new era of excitement: Roland Hemond was hired as director of player personnel, and Chuck Tanner was hired as field manager. The team was very active in the off-season and the 1971 White Sox who took the field Opening Day were unrecognizable to the few fans who remembered the '70 aggregation.

In addition to a raft of new faces, Tanner made two significant changes involving players he inherited. He moved Bill Melton from right field to third base and converted relief pitcher Wilbur Wood to a starter. Melton won the A.L. home run crown in '71 with 33 round trippers, the first White Sox hitter of modern times to win a league home run title. Wood posted 20 or more wins for four seasons (22, 24, 24, and 20).

The pinnacle of Tanner's reign at the helm of the White Sox came in 1972 when the newly-acquired slugger, Dick Allen, led the Sox to second place in the American League West Division, the first time they had finished that high since the final year of Lopez' command (1965). And they broke one million in attendance (1,186,018) for the first time in seven years. Allen not only belted 37 home runs to set a White Sox single-season record, he also led the A.L. in home runs, RBI (113), and slugging percentage (.603) en route to the league's most valuable player award. Tanner was named manager-of-the-year and Hemond major league executive-of-the-year.

The Forgettable '70s

Financial troubles reared their ugly head again, and after the great promise of 1972, the team began to fade. The money problems reached a point in 1975 that it appeared the White Sox might leave Chicago.

The team and its fans were saved that fate late in 1975 when the irrepressible Bill Veeck concocted an 11th hour deal after organizing a group to purchase the team. It gave Veeck a second go-around with the team he owned in 1959 and '60.

Player salaries began their historic escalation in 1976 and Veeck turned to his now-famous "rent-a-free-agent" scheme that gave Sox fans a flash of brilliance in 1977. That year, Hall of Fame pitcher Bob Lemon managed the White Sox, stocked with one-year free agents Oscar Gamble and Richie Zisk, to a third-place finish in the A.L. West. The slugging White Sox, the most potent Sox team since the early '70s, pounded 192 homers, led by Gamble's 31, Zisk's 30, and Eric Soderholm's 25.

Tissue paper-thin financing once again impacted the White Sox franchise when the club was unable to retain many of the players who sparked them in '77. Veeck had run out of mirrors. The club went on the sale block in late 1980.

Success And Credibility Returns

The American League approved the sale of the White Sox to a limited partnership headed by Jerry Reinsdorf, a Chicago real estate syndicator, and Eddie Einhorn, a vice president of CBS Television Sports, on January 29, 1981.

The new Sox owners made news almost immediately by signing free agent catcher Carlton Fisk and purchasing the contract of slugger Greg Luzinski before the end of spring training.

Further credibility followed not only with the improvement of the team's personnel, but with the money the new ownership poured into modernizing and improving venerable Comiskey Park.

Success arrived quickly with the club's 1983 American League West Division title by a whopping 20-game margin.

The franchise had turned the corner!

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

The World War I war effort hit baseball hard. In Chicago, a wartime tax on baseball raised Comiskey Park's 1918 bleacher seats to 30 cents, grandstand seats to 55 cents, and box seats to $1.10.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

The longest by-the-clock game in American League history was waged at Comiskey Park May 8-9, 1984 between the White Sox and the Milwaukee Brewers. It took eight hours and six minutes, a span covering two days, for the game to be brought to its conclusion by Sox right fielder Harold Baines, who hit the contest's 753rd pitch into the center field bullpen for the decisive home run and a 7-6 White Sox victory.

Play was suspended at 1:05 a.m. on May 9 with the score tied 3-3. Play resumed at 6:35 p.m. Tom Seaver received the triumph in relief, then started and won the regularly scheduled game on May 9, making him the first White Sox pitcher to win twice in the same day since Wilbur Wood turned the trick against Cleveland May 28, 1973.

The bat Baines used to end the historic game was sent to the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y. The ball he hit and the lengthy ticker tape account of the game are on display in Comiskey Park.

Current White Sox (and American League) pinch hitter deluxe, Jerry Hairston (below), will surpass the White Sox career pinch hit record of 50 he shares with Smoky Burgess (above) with his first 1985 pinch safety.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

The 1956 season boiled down to one weekend of thrills for White Sox fans. The Yankees came calling on June 22. Such unlikely Sox heroes as Sammy Esposito, Dave Philley, and Jim Wilson beat the Yanks with their fists, bats, and guts as they swept the Bombers. Bad blood had spilled over from 1955 when Minnie Minoso was beaned by Yankee pitcher Bob Grim. When Grim tried to make Philley his second victim, a melee ensued. The next day, Billy Pierce and Gerry Staley capped the 1950s' most exciting weekend with a 14-2 drubbing and a 6-3 nightcap win over New York.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Richard Lindberg, author of Who's On 3rd: The Chicago White Sox Story, writes, "The beauty of Comiskey Park is subtle. It is perfectly symmetrical. There are no short porches, weird angles, or clinging vines. There is excellence in proportion and a calming reassurance that the park looks the same as it did in 1927 when Babe Ruth came calling."

"AAA" Denver Bears (American Association)

A mid-season managerial change placed Adrian Garrett into the Bears' helm and propelled Denver to a 38-31 finish (after a 41-44 start) and a berth in the American Association playoffs. The third-place Bears surprised the second-spot Iowa Cubs four games to one in the semifinal round before dropping the championship series to the Louisville Redbirds by the same count.

The Bears' team batting average of .274 tied Wichita for the Association lead, the second consecutive year the Bears led the loop in that department. Denver also led in triples (70), sacrifice flies (69), and during the regular season, the Bears posted league bests in extra-inning victories (11), one-run triumphs (25), and road record (40-37).

Center fielder Daryl Boston, who spent two stints with the parent White Sox, appearing in 35 games, earning Association rookie-of-the-year honors. His impressive totals included a .312 batting average (fourth in the league), 147 hits, 94 runs, 21 doubles, 19 triples (most in the Association since 1969), 40 stolen bases, 66 walks, 82 runs batted in, and 251 total bases. Boston, named to the Association all-star team at season's end, also garnered two player-of-the-week accolades while also posting two five-hit games.

Denver's other outstanding offensive performer was third baseman Jose Castro, the Association's no. 3 hitter at .316. Castro, the Bears' other Association all-star, added 67 RBI, 32 doubles, and 12 home runs to his impressive batting average.

First baseman Joe DeSa also enjoyed a strong season, hitting .282 with 81 RBI while leading the Association defensively in games (139), total chances (1,285), putouts (1,157), assists (119), double plays (131), and fielding percentage (.993).

Only two Denver pitchers posted double-figure win totals — Cliff Speck (12) and Randy Niemann (10). Niemann, who spent September with the parent White Sox, led the Bears in strikeouts (110).

"AA" Glens Falls White Sox (Eastern League)

Glens Falls earned a berth in the Eastern League playoffs by tying the Waterbury Angels for second place, six games behind the league-leading Albany A's.

Waterbury eliminated the GlenSox three games to one in the semifinal round of post-season play.

First baseman Pat Adams, who was traded to the San Francisco Giants' organization late in the season, led the league with 24 homers, 102 RBI, and 17 game-winning RBI while hitting .283. The 6-6 Adams also was outstanding defensively.

Promising outfielder Ken Williams, the former Stanford wide receiver, began 1984 at "A" Appleton of the Midwest League before his promotion to Glens Falls where he hit .246 while accumulating eight homers, 47 RBI, and 16 stolen bases. He, too, is rated outstanding defensively and boasts an exceptional throwing arm to complement his blazing speed.

Adams and center fielder John Cangelosi (.287, 65 stolen bases) were Glens Falls' two Eastern League all-stars.

Pitcher Burt Geiger, although only 5-5 during the season, was named most valuable player in the Eastern League all-star game with two scoreless innings.

Glens Falls' top two pitchers — Mike Trujillo (13-3) and Doug Drabek (12-5) — also were traded to other organizations by the end of the season. Drabek went to the New York Yankees as part of the White Sox' deal for Roy Smalley. Trujillo accompanied Adams to San Francisco for third baseman Tom O'Malley.

"A" Appleton Foxes (Midwest League)

The White Sox' "A" franchise continued its amazing string of successes in 1984 by grabbing its third consecutive Midwest League championship. The Foxes' 87-49 record was second best in team history.

Pitching highlighted the Foxes' latest outstanding season. Jim Hickey posted a 13-5 record, 1.81 ERA, and 22 saves out of the bullpen to earn not only a berth on the Midwest League all-star team but also the Rolaids minor league relief pitcher-of-the-year award.

Bruce Tanner, son of former White Sox and current Pittsburgh Pirate manager Chuck Tanner, accrued staggering statistics. He pitched 50 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run and now has not yielded a home run in his first two professional seasons or 157⅔ innings. Tanner, who began the season as a reliever, closed with a 12-4 record and a glittering 1.96 ERA. Included in his 12 victories was a run of 11 straight successes after moving to the starting rotation.

Fireballing youngster Ed Correa impressed at 10-6 while striking out 134 batters in 149⅓ innings.

Reliever Kurt Walker was 9-1 in 46 appearances. His 1.96 ERA and 106 strikeouts in 91⅔ innings also turned heads.

Offensively, first sacker Russ Morman led the Midwest League with 15 game-winning RBI. Outfielder Dave McLaughlin led the Foxes in batting at .305, fifth in the league.

Midwest League Playoffs

Appleton captured its third straight Midwest League title, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1960, tying a league record for most consecutive titles. In the first round of the playoffs, Appleton defeated Madison, Wis. [Oakland] two games to one to win the best-of-three series, then defeated Springfield, Ill. [St. Louis] three games to two in the championship round.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Prior to the 1927 season, Charles Comiskey spent $600,000 installing an upper deck in the outfield, replacing the wooden seats with a new concrete and steel pavilion. The architects said no man was capable of hitting a ball over the roof. But Babe Ruth was no ordinary man. It only took him until August to do what the architects had declared to be impossible, smashing a homer clear over the roof.

"A" Niagara Falls White Sox (New York-Penn League)

Niagara Falls had the dubious distinction of being the only White Sox farm club to post a losing record in 1984, closing at 35-40 to finish fifth in the New York-Penn League's Wrigley Division.

However, the season did not go without producing bright spots. Starting pitcher Joel Davis, despite assignment to three different ChiSox farm clubs, was named to the New York-Penn League all-star team. In 11 Niagara Falls starts, Davis struck out 72 batters in 69 innings. He spun a one-hitter on June 23.

Another starting pitcher, Todd Simmons, enjoyed an eventful summer. After leading California State-Fullerton to the College World Series championship, Simmons, a fourth-round draft choice of the White Sox, posted a 7-1 record at Niagara Falls with a 1.29 ERA. He led the league with three shutouts and seven complete games. At season's end, he was traded to San Diego with LaMarr Hoyt.

Outfielder Jim Winters was the team's leading hitter at .294 with nine home runs (including three in one game) and 29 RBI.

"Rookie" White Sox (Gulf Coast League)

The young White Sox won the south division of the Gulf Coast League before dropping a dramatic ninth-inning decision to Texas' league entrant in the one-game circuit playoff. The Sox' 41-22 slate was the league's best record as was their home mark of 22-9.

Pitcher Jim Filippi, who sported a gaudy 10-1 record, 0.61 ERA, and 74 strikeouts in 74 innings, was voted the league player-of-the-year. Pitchers David White (9-3) and Chris Jefts (6-1) also had successful debuts to their careers.

Offensively, the Sarasota Sox were potent, leading the league in batting average (.270), doubles (91), runs (326), and RBI (261).

Third baseman Norm Santiago led Sarasota in average at .315. First baseman Luis Peraza led in RBI with 38.

For the team's performance, Steve Dillard was named Gulf Coast League manager-of-the-year.

Filippi, Santiago, Peraza, right fielder Jerry Bertolani, and catcher Jorge Alcazar were chosen to the loop all-star team.

Comiskey Park Anniversary Memory

Third baseman Bill Melton entered the final game of the 1971 season on September 30, 1971 tied with Norm Cash and Reggie Jackson for the American League lead in home runs with 32. Melton, 26, was inserted into the leadoff spot by manager Chuck Tanner in an attempt to possibly give Melton one additional at bat.

With only 2,814 fans in attendance, Melton deposited a third-inning breaking ball from Milwaukee's Bill Parsons into the left-field seats for his 33rd home run. Melton tossed his batting helmet to the crowd while security personnel retrieved the ball.

Melton became the first White Sox player in history to win the A.L. home run title (Dick Allen earned the same notoriety the following season.)

MEDIA INFORMATION

Credentials

Application for credentials to White Sox baseball at Comiskey Park should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead. Address requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, Chicago White Sox, 324 W. 35th Street, Chicago, IL 60616. Requests for season credentials should be made by April 1, 1985. Single-game or single-series requests should be received at least one week prior to the requested game(s). Season credentials will be mailed; single-series or single-game passes will be left at the press will call gate (9). Single-series or single-game credentials must be displayed at all times.

Press Will Call

Press will call at Comiskey Park is located at Gate 9 on the third base (Shields Avenue) side of the park. The Andy Frain usher mans the gate beginning one and one-half hours prior to the game's starting time.

Parking

Press parking is limited. The White Sox public relations office will make every effort to accommodate media members. Most of the parking available to the press is located on 34th Street immediately north of the left field wall.

Clubhouses

The White Sox occupy the third base clubhouse; visiting clubs man the first base clubhouse. The White Sox clubhouse is open to the media until approximately 30 minutes prior to the start of each game and again about 10 minutes following the game's conclusion. The White Sox clubhouse is closed to the media between games of doubleheaders. The visiting clubhouse is subject to the rules of the visiting club.

Training Room, Weight Room, Players' Lounge

The White Sox training room, weight room, and players' lounge in the home clubhouse are off limits to the media.

Dugouts

The dugouts are off-limits to everyone except uniformed and certain White Sox officials in accordance with American League rules.

Field

Credentials must be marked for field access. Credentials do not necessarily entitle holders access to the field. Media members with field privileges are free to circulate during batting practice through the conclusion of infield drills. Following both teams' infield drills, the field must be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel. Except in unusual cases, the field also is off limits following the conclusion of games.

Photo Locations

Field level and upper deck photo locations are available. The field level positions are located in dugouts on each baseline just beyond the players' dugouts. Since the space is limited, all field photo positions are assigned for the season. Special arrangements for use of the field level positions must be made through the White Sox public relations office. Several photo baskets hang from the facade of the upper deck at varying intervals around the infield. There are no photo positions in the outfield.

Bards Room

A special credential is necessary for admittance to the Comiskey Park Bards Room (level four). The Bards Room, which serves press meals in its north dining room beginning two hours prior to the game, also opens for approximately one and one-half hours following the game. Space in the press dining room is limited so media members are asked to eat and relinquish their seats for others.

Press Box

Located on level five. Most seats are assigned on a season basis. Access is limited strictly to working members of the media. Non-working members of the media should contact the public relations office prior to the game for accommodation in the stands.

Game Notes

Game notes and statistics are provided by both teams prior to each game in bins located in row three of the main working press room.

Post-Game Notes

Notes, quotes, and statistics are provided to the press in written form as soon as possible following the game.

Broadcast Booths

Comiskey Park broadcast booths are pre-assigned. Broadcast booth needs should be directed to Laureen Ong Fadil, White Sox vice president-broadcasting & special projects.

Interviews

Uniformed personnel normally are available to the media on the field during batting practice and in the clubhouse during times when the clubhouse is open to the press. Media members needing to reach members of the White Sox organization at other times should contact the White Sox public relations office.

Audio Report

The White Sox daily audio hotline service (312/924-3995 or 3996) offers members of the media reports and actualities following games and when special reports are warranted. Reports are changed daily during the season and as appropriate during the off-season.

INSTEAD OF JUST A BEER, MAKE IT SOMETHING SPECIAL.

Special Export is a rare combination of the world's finest ingredients and an expensive, Old World way of brewing called Kraeusening.

The result is a distinctly different taste than that offered by most American beers today. It's full bodied, rich . . . a true European taste in the classic, Old World tradition.

Go ahead, sit back and enjoy something Special... Heileman's Special Export.
